February 2010

LPPL National Championships are Here!!

The Live Pub Poker League National Championships take place at Thorpe Park Holiday Centre, Cleethorpes over the weekend of March 12-14, 2010.

The tournament will get underway at 9:00pm on Friday 12th March and over 500 players are again expected to be taking their seats in the challenge to become our new National Champion.

Players are advised to get to the venue early and registration will close at 8:00pm—please refer to the “Latest News” section of the website for full information concerning arrival and registration.

We are pleased to announce that the full event will be filmed in conjunction with our new partners, Ladbrokes, and also in attendance for the weekend and getting involved in the action will be world famous poker professional Jon “Skalie” Kalmar— a WSOP Main Event Final Tablist.

We look forward to seeing you there!!!!

Want to play the Nationals but haven't qualified? Here's your "Last Chance" to enter!!!!!!

There will be a “Last Chance” event starting at 2pm on Friday March 12 at the Nationals in aid of the Pub Poker 4 Charity Appeal. A £10 rebuy tournament will be played for all LPPL members—the highest finishing “Non Qualifier” for the Nationals will win a seat into the event—the highest placed member already qualified for the Nationals will win a trip to Las Vegas for the WSOP 2010!!!

Defending LPPL National Champion David “Hustler” Hunter from the Humber League.
